

Susan Cecil Boone

A Well-Loved Woman

In Loving Memory

NOVEMBER 20, 1950 – FEBRUARY 16, 2021

"Susan was pure unconditional love."

-Terry Hildebrand

IN LOVING MEMORY

"Most beautiful woman!"
-Naj Kermani

"The best role model of a mother! Always loved opening up her house to all of us."
-Liz Maglio

"Loved her. Great lady!"
-Mike Boone

“Your Mom was the most amazing person. She would be so proud of Shannon and Jackie.”

-The Courtney/Bittmann Family

In Loving Memory of Susan Cecil Boone

"I truly enjoyed spending time with her and knew right away how special she was."
-Vivian Kallman

"I'm grateful for sharing many sacred journeys with Susan. What a blessing she has been in my life."
-Ronna Prince

"Susan is watching and so proud of the loving-based celebration of her life. I am grateful to have been included."
-B. Woods

In Loving Memory of Susan Cecil Boone

"I loved her. She was my first big sister. Susan introduced me to banking my junior year in high school. I worked a summer at her bank at fourth and Main in Louisville. I was a tomboy. I didn't have the clothes or the ability to pick out dress clothes for my job. Susan and I went shopping!! I went to stores I never knew existed. I had a day I will never forget. Susan was always ready to help."

-Mary Deeley

IN LOVING MEMORY

"I loved Susan and she will always be present for me in Jackie and Shannon. I will always remember her dancing at Shannon's wedding and being my partner in Cards Against Humanity. We were winners!"

-Gloria Boone

"I loved Susan's kindness and energy and will always remember her as a symbol of unconditional love and kindness."
-Priscilla Stephan

"Susan was so generous and kind to our family."
-Jack Hilley

"Such lovely words - we should all be so lucky to experience unconditional love like that."
-Sarah Fletcher

In Loving Memory of Susan Cecil Boone

”

“I'll always remember the summers when Uncle Jr, Aunt Ruth, Susan Diane, Bennett Downs III and Michael Paul visited the Cecil home place in St Mary, KY. May she rest in peace!"

-John Cecil

In Loving Memory of Susan Cecil Boone

"Susan saw love in everything and everyone. She was compassionate, kind and non-judgmental. Her love was like a radiant flower petal that spreads its nectar and with it, joy. Susan’s essence is love, love, love. Love is eternal and so is Susan."

With all my heart,

Sudi Cecil

THANK YOU FOR HONORING AND LOVING SUSAN!

How many people
can you love before
it's too much? she said

& I said I didn't think there was any real limit as long as you didn't care if they loved you back.

"Real Limit" by Brian Andreas, Traveling Light

Lots of love,

JACKIE AND SHANNON BOONE